PRESS RELEASE

Rueil Malmaison, February 9th, 2017

VINCI successfully places US$450 million cash-settled synthetic convertible bonds

VINCI announces today the successful placement of US$450 millions non-dilutive cash-settled convertible bonds with a maturity of 5 years due 2022 (the "Bonds"). Concurrently, VINCI is purchasing cash settled call options (the "Call Options") to hedge its economic exposure in case of exercise of the conversion rights embedded in the Bonds. As the Bonds will only be cash settled, they will not give right to any new or existing VINCI shares.

The Bonds will be issued at par on February 16th, 2017, the expected settlement-delivery date of the Bonds, and redeemed at par on February 16th, 2022. The Bonds will bear interest at an annual nominal rate of 0.375% payable semi-annually in arrear on August 16th, and February 16th, of each year, commencing on August 16th, 2017. The nominal value of each Bond will be US$200,000.

The initial conversion price will represent a conversion premium of 22.5% over the share reference price. The share reference price will be determined as the arithmetic average of VINCI's daily volume-weighted average share price in euros on the regulated market of Euronext in Paris over the 10 consecutive trading days from February 10th, 2017 to February 23rd, 2017 (the "Reference Share Price Period"). The initial conversion ratio of the Bonds will be determined on February 23rd, 2017, and will correspond to the nominal value per Bond converted in euros and divided by the initial conversion price.

The net proceeds of the issue of the Bonds will be used for general corporate purposes.

It is anticipated that the hedge counterparties to the Call Options will enter into transactions to hedge their respective positions under the Call Options through the sale, purchase of Vinci shares or any other transactions, on the market and off-market, at any time, and in particular during the Reference Share Price Period and at or around the conversion or redemption of the Bonds.

The share reference price and the initial conversion price will be announced through a final press release at the end of the Reference Period, expected to take place on or around February 23rd, 2017.
