VINCI wins the contract to build a section of motorway in the Czech Republic

- Construction of approximately 20km of motorway in the north of the Czech Republic
- Contract total value: €364 million

The consortium led by Eurovia CZ, a subsidiary of VINCI Construction in the Czech Republic, has been awarded by the Road and Motorway Directorate, the construction of the final section of the D11 motorway between Jaroměř and Trutnov.

The D11 motorway is part of the Trans-European Transport Network (TEN-T). Once completed, the motorway will extend 155 km and connect Prague with the Polish border.

The works of the final section – scheduled to start in April 2026 with completion expected by the end of 2029 – include the construction of 20 km of new roadway, 31 bridges (with a total length of 2,5 km) and a 767-m tunnel.

The project will be carried out in a way that respects the environment and local residents. The tunnel and 12 km of noise barriers will reduce noise pollution. In addition, wildlife migration corridors have been identified, studied, and secured.

VINCI Construction is a long-standing player in the Czech Republic, where it made over €1.2 billion in revenue in 2025. The VINCI Group is also active in the country through VINCI Energies, which principally builds electrical infrastructure there, and VINCI Concessions, which holds the public-private partnership contract for the D4 motorway (Via Salis). In total, the Group employs more than 5,400 people in this country.
